Rep. Pastor, Sen. Toy announce 11th Annual Western Wayne County Senior Celebration Day

LANSING – The 11th annual Western Wayne County Senior Celebration Day will be held Friday October 14, 2005, announced state Representative John R. Pastor, R-Livonia, and state Senator Laura M. Toy, R-Livonia.

“Our area is home to a great number of seniors, and this fun-filled event is just one way to give back to them and to our community,” Pastor said. “I look forward to seeing many familiar faces this year, as well as many new ones.”

The event takes place at Burton Manor, located at I-96 and Inkster Road in Livonia, and runs from 9:30 a.m. to 1:30 p.m. Tickets will go on sale Tuesday Sept. 6 and can be purchased at senior centers in Garden City, Livonia, Redford Township and Westland.

The event is organized by Pastor, Toy and Senior Citizen Achievement Needs, a local nonprofit organization for seniors. This year its major sponsor is Angela Hospice of Livonia.

“This is my seventh year of involvement with Senior Celebration,” Toy said. “What I love about this event is that not only is it a really fun time, but it’s also a great value.”

Tickets are only $5 and include a hot meal, door prizes, games, health screenings, exhibitor booths featuring samples, novelties, and other information, and a free cloth bag to carry away all the goodies.

Those interested in attending should purchase tickets early. The event is limited to 1,200 people and has sold out in the past.

For additional information, residents may contact Senator Toy’s office at (517) 373-1707, or Representative Pastor’s office at (517) 373-3920.
